WHEN DUCK HUNTING WAS GOOD

Passing of the Days of Redwood's Military Glory---Burlingame Makes Big Land Deal.

On the 9t of June a rather notable transfer of county real estate was announced. This was the sale by J. H. Poett of his interest in the Howard Rancho, consisting of 1000 acres, to Hon. Anson Burlingame, them United States Minister to China, who had just return from the Orient. This was considered at the time one of the most valuable tracts of land in the county. The consideration named in the deed for the land was $54,457, a considerable portion of which was represented in a ten-year mortgage.

During the late Spring of this year much was done to improve the appearance of the courthouse and jail, which for some years had been a source of jest in the commuity. A substantial fence was built around the lot and the outer walls were painted and sanded to the appearance of stone. The painting was done by Dennis Leary, while the contract for the carpenter work was in charge of Mr. Donnelly.

On the evening of June 23d, this city was visited by another rather serious fire. the origin of which was a mystery. The fire occurred in a building belonging to Edgar & Donnelly, and located on Main street. At the time of the fire the lower portion of the building, which had been occupied by Reed & Clark as a general store, was vacant, but the upper portion was occupied by Messrs Page and Donnely as sleeping apartments and Dr. Kirkpatrick as an office. No one was in the building at the time the fire was discovered, Donnelly, who had been in his room during the early portion of the evening, had left a short time before the fire, which apparently started in his room. While almost the entire building was destroyed, the office of Dr. Kirkpatrick was left almost uninjured. Both Edgar and Donnelly lost practically their entire belongings. The brilding was insured for $800, which but partially covered the loss.

As had been the custom for a number of years, the Fourth of July was observed in this county at a number of points with more or less elaborate ceremonies. In this city the observances opened at midnight with the ringing of the fire bell and a general discharge of firearms. At sunrise a Federal salute of 13 guns was fired, the brass cannon purchased the year previous for such occasions being used. At 11 o'clock there was a procession, consisting of the Jefferson Cavalry, the fire company and citizens, under the direction of Captain Lathrop as grand marshal. The general exercises were held in a grove on the Maxwell place, near town, and consisted of a prayer by Rev. W. C. Bartleet, reading of the Declation of Independence by H. N. Nutting and an oration by E. D. Wheeler, of Oakland, interspersed with the usual singing of patriotic airs. After the rendition of this program, the remainder of the day was spent in picnicing in the grove. The only disturbance that marred the day was the stabbing of Thomas Ritchie by Fred Koal, a shoemaker employed in the shop of Fred Botsch. Ritchie was cut in the breast with a pocket knife, the wound not being a serious one. Koal was placed under arrest, but was not prosecuted as it was apparent that the cutting was done in self defense, Ritchie being under the influence of liquor and having having been the aggressor.

At the meeting of Bay View Lodge, I. O. O. F., held on the evening of July 6th, officers for the term were installed as follows: William Holder, noble grand: William Durham, vice grand; B. A. Rankin, recording recretary; George W. Fox, treasurer; J. W. Turner, permanent secretary; John Shelley, warden; C. N. Fox, conductor; J. L. Snow and B. F. Fox, supporters to noble grand; A. T. Warren and Fred Botsch, supsorters to vice grand.

The following extract from the files of the Gazette of July 21st, 1866, will show that at that dats San Mateo County was "some pumpkins" not only in the production of wheat but in its manufacture into shape for food consumption. The article, which is modestly headed "Quick Work," is as follows: "Messrs Page & Peers, of Searsville, will accept our thanks for a sack of 'Extra' new flour, which was left at the Gazette office on Tuesday last. We have learned the following particulars it connection with this sack of flour. Tuesday morning the grain was standing in the field formerly occupied by Mr. Tallant, about two miles from Redwood City. The wheat was cut, threshed, sacked and taken to the Redwood City Flour Mill and converted into flour and deposited at our office a little past noon of the same day. That is weat we call quick work and seldom beat. Page & Peers have in the crop mentioned 330 acres, which will average 40 bushels to the acre, and the finest quality of wheat to be found in the state. The flour manufactured from wheat raised on the Pulgas Rancho is fully equal to Lick's or any other brand in the state. At $1 per bushel, the product of this 130 acres will amount to the snug sum of $13,200. Johnson & Welch are now engaged in threshing the crop."

Notwithstanding the fact that during the preceeding two years there had considerable of a religious revival in this town, and that two churches had been built and that religious services of two more denominations were being held regularly in public halls, it was noted as a rather regretable fact that there was not a single minister resident of the town. All four of the services were held with what many of the people termed "borrowed ministers"—preachers coming from other places for the purpose of holding the services and then returning to their homes. Many of the members of the churches were finding fault with this condition of affairs, and some were threatening to withdraw their financial support from the congregotions unless some end could be found for the "carpet bay" method.

With the end of the war the military spirit which had been prevalent among the people of the entire country began to die out and it was soon found a difficult matter to keep up even a reasonable semblance of life in the numerous military organizations that had been formed throughout the state. This section was no exception to the rule, and in spite of the efforts of Captain Lathrop and his officers, interest in the Jefferson Cavalry waned rapidly, and the town was threatened with the loss of an organization which had at least done much to lend enthusiasm to the observances of public holidays. Nothing could be done to revive the interest, and on the evening of August 8th the Jefferson Cavalry was mustered out of the state service, their arms and equipments boxed up and shipped to Sacramento, and Redwood City bade a sad farewell to its military glory.

Here is a little story from the files of the Gazette of December 22d, 1866, that may make some of the hunters of today, who get out before daylight and think they are doing great things if, after shooting away a couple of dollar's worth of ammunition, come home with a dozen ducks, feel rather envious: "Messrs Chase & Lynch, who have been hunting in the vicinity of Redwood City this fall, have probably sent more ducks to San Francisco than any other one party in this state. Last week they made two shipments by railroad of over 1400 ducks, and this we learn is about their average number per week. Lynch has killed 60 teal duck at one shot with the two barrels, and he thinks it poor shooting to fire both barrels without killing 30 at the one shot."

OLD FAVORITES ARE RETURNING

Our theatre goers await with pleasure the coming of the Elleford Company each year, as they know that they will see the latest plays presented with a strong company and at a popular price of admission. This year Manager Elleford has one of the best organizations he has ever offered fo California theatre goers. Gladys Field, the new leading woman, is a charming young actress, and bears a striking resemblance to Maxine Elliott. She was at the Liberty theatre, Oakland, for one year, and was one of the big favorites. Lloyd Bacon, a son of the well known actor, Frank Bacon, is the leading man, and several of the old company are retained. The bill selected for the opening is the pretty Americau comedy drama, "The American Girl." It is a melange of comedy. Heart interest and sensation, and is cast with the full strength of the company. Between acts the wonderful Osborn children will present some of the latest musical numbers. The bill for Tuesday is "A Flag of Truce," a play dealing with scenes and incidents at the close of the Civil War. It is one of the prettiest war time stories ever written and had a New York run of one year. On Wednesday afternoon after school a special matinee will be given when the bill is "Cinderella," presenting the Osborn children as the leading vocalists, and there is something to more than please the little folks and delight the elders as well. The Wednesday night offering is Joseph R. Grismer's powerful western story, "Beacon Lights." There is a great deal of musical numbers introduced in every play, making them all musical comedy entertainments, someting that pleases the average theatre goer. The prices are 15, 25 and 35 cents. The sale of seats opens at Ryan's Drug Store to-day.

ENJOYED MUSICAL PROGRAM

Large Audience Listens to Splendid Musicale at Christian Church.

The musical entertainment given at the Congregational church Friday evening was a splendid success from every point. A happy, merry crowd was present, something like thirty-five dollars was cleared in the venture, and everyone spent a delightful evening, going home satisfied that Mr. Cloud was a master hand for g tting up a program. It was a great disappointment to the audience to learn that Professor O. M. Carrington, who was suffering from a cold was unable to contribute to the program.

The first number for the evening was a solo by Miss Wolfenden, "Two Dark Brown Eyes" which received hearty applauseand brought an encore, "Northern Days", each being rendered in an excellent manner.

"The Gypsy Trail" by Mr. Landscheit was well received as was also his encore "A Drap o' Dew", which was pretty and amusing.

Everyone enjoyed the duet by Miss Wolfenden and Miss Beeger, "Last Night the Nightengale Woke Me".

Mrs. N. C. Cummings sang 'Past and Future" so delightfully that she was called upon for an encore and rendered "Maytime".

Messrs. Mullen, Goldsmith and Lamb furnished orchestra selections which were thoroughly appreciated. The intermezzo, Cavalleria Rusticana, was their principal number. The Zobo Band, four in number, not to be outdone by the orchestra, rendered a number of amusing selections, starting with "Lonesome" and concluding with a "Hot Time". Ralph Dodge also rendered a difficult piccolo solo.

Through the program, Mr. Cloud and Mr. Meyers enlivened the audience with funny stories, and Miss Caroline Doxsee gave "Mother Goose up to date," making particular reference to the "parson's auto."

Refreshments were served at the conclusion of the program.

There will be some special attractions at the Bell Theater, on Main street, next week.

Gas in the Kitchen

A gas company lays no pretension to being a philanthropic institution, and yet in its struggle to develop its business, the gas industry has lightened the labor and increased the comfort of millions of women.

The New Rork World, in the course of an editorial on the "Golden Age," said: "The kitchen maid of the present day knows more than the fine ladies of Versailles knew when the Louises were kings, and has more comforts and conveniences."

Today the kitchen without a gas range in a community where gas is obtainable is a rarity, and is deemed very antique and primitive by the marriageable generation of young women.

Nearly all women who live in cities will admit, upon reflection, that the gas stove is the greatest single domestic blessing that has become theirs in the last quarter of a century.

Women sufficiently fortunate to know what it is to be free from the intolerable summer superheat of the coal range, and from the well-founded terror of the gasolene stove. It is also their privilege to enjoy the great economy of the gas-burning stove, its immense labor-saving advantage and its cleanliness of operation.

The time was reached some years ago when gas in the kitchen came within the financial reach of every family in the city.

Will This Never End?

Once more the fair fame of San Mateo County is made to suffer at the hands of the San Francisco newspaper fraternity, which is apparently happy only when besmirching the good name of some community. When these papers find the occupation of holding up to scorn the good name of their own city becoming monotonous, they must of needs find some other community to make the victim of their calumny, and far too frequently this county is selected as the victim of these scurrilous attacks. This time it is the Call, which goes out of its way editorially to do injury to the public reputation of San Mateo County, a community from which the Bay City derives a very considerable proportion of its social distinction as well as its commercial support.

Were it not for the possibly injurious effects which these attacks might have with residents of other sections who are not familiar with these tactics of the San Francisco papers, these baseless flings would scarcely be worthy of notice. So rediculously unfounded are the assertions of the article that they carry their own refutation among the people of the county, who are familiar with the facts. While the people of this county have never attempted to hold its government up as a model of civic excellence, it is certain that its affairs are as well and honestly conducted as those of other sections of the State—certainly with as much regard to the public weal as those of San Francisco.

True that for a time some of the northern portions of the county were the resorts of an undesirable element. So far as can be ascertained, practically all of these claimed San Francisco as their homes, and to a very large extent, at least, they have been driven back to the places whence they came by the officials of San Mateo County.

In the eyes of no one else but these selfsame "newspapers" have the public official of this county been shown to have been either dishonest or incompetent.

True, a "trusty" in the county jail took advantage of the liberty usually allowed this class of prisoners and made his escape. Equally true, this same "trusty," after a night of liberty enjoyed in a neighboring town, saw the error of his course and returned to the confidence he had abused. If this occurrence is the stamp of official crime, under what category comes the San Francisco police, among whom the escape of prisoners is a matter of almost daily occurrence?

Equally true, the Treasurer of this county, for the protection of himself and his bondsmen, who must assume the responsibility for the safety of the public funds, places the money where he has reason to believe it will be forthcoming when demanded for the use of the public to whom he is responsible. Until the county finds some legal method of relieving him from this responsibility no other course can be pursued. If this is either dishonesty or incompetency, in Heavens name protect us from the "honest officicial" who would assume risks over which he had no control in the disposition of the public funds.

True, these same "journals," for sinister purposes of their own, have on more than one occasion endeavored to impute dishonesty to the members of the Board of Supervisors, past and present, but careful investigation by legally constituted inquisitorial bodies have so far failed to develop even a suspicion of dishonest motives. While some citizens have, as was their right, questioned some of the modes of proceedure adopted by some of these officials in the consummation of some transactions, no one has ever even accused any of them of either acting dishonestly or securing private benefit in these transactions.

Some day the people of this county will tire of the treatment they receive at the hands of the San Francisco papers, and administer to their traducers a rebuke they will appreciate. Their support will be withdrawn from these papers, and when their managers find their pockets touched perhaps their consciences will be awakened and they will treat their patrons with at least common honesty, if not decency.

Heed Well the Admonition.

Every woman in Redwood City—and for that matter every man too—should have heard the address of Mayor Merrill before the Womans Club last week. Seldom has the needs and conditions of a city such as ours been more ably discussed, and rarely is advice given more directly to the point. In manner showing that he was thoroughly conversant with the important subject, and in language in which there was no equivocation, Mr. Merrill told his hearers of the needs of their help in the upbuilding of our community and the manner in which that work might be best accomplished.

And if the members of the Womans Club and their sisters of the city, desire the real upbuilding of the municipality they would do well to heed the advice given. As was well remarked, there is an abundance of opportunity for the aid of these good women in the work of civic improvement which has at last gathered headway. In many public betterments their assistance is properly directed, will prove invaluable.

To accomplish this, the admonition that the work must be of a practicable nature must not be lost sight of. We have no right to expect of the Trustees that they should take upon their shoulders the entire responsibility of planning for the numerous public work required. These men are devoting their time to the public good without financial remuneration and can but give the time which can be spared from the demands of private business without injury to themselves. In the multiplicity of the public demands they are entitled to the support and assistance of every public spirited citizen—Whether woman or man.

Who but the women can best assist and counsel in plans for sanitation, one of the most important problems of the day? They are certainly best informed as to the conditions of the home premises and should be able to advise as to the most acceptable methods of amelioration. To the women we have the best right to look for that improvement of the outward appearances of the homes which will render the city more attractive in the eyes of the visitor, and thus conduce to the addition of a desirable class of population. As was suggested by Mayor Merrill, into the hands of intelligent and conscientious women may well be committed the plans for public parks and play grounds where the innocent energies of our children may be developed free from undesirable surroundings. And these are but a tithe of the many important matters of public weal that might best receive the care and thought of the mothers of our city.

But to be of real help in these important matters, they must do must prepare the plans and the methods for their accomplishment.

Another important suggestion was that to be of real sconsequence the work must be concentrated along these practical lines. There must be no dalliance with so-called "advance ideas," no idea that the entire scheme of our municipal government must be "reformed"

With these important matters properly attended to, there will be but little time for efforts at "moral reform." Nor, as was suggested by Mr. Merrill, does there appear to be any necessity for serious attempts at the improvement of the civic morals. While conditions are perhaps not entirely the best that might be possible the general moral condition of the city is far from deplorable, or even bad. While the saloon, with some few of its possible evils, is with us, this business is well under controll of the Council, and the undesirable elements have been reduced to a minimum. The present laws seem ample for the regulation of the business and are being enforced strictly and with the best efforts at fairness to all. Saloon keepers apparently recognize the justice of this control and are conducting the business so that generally speaking it is not in any manner a public offense. Gambling and other evil's do not exist, at least not in such form as to be amenable to law.

Now that Thanksgiving has passed, we naturally turn our thoughts to Christmas and holiday shopping. The people of the town owe it to the local merchant to give him an opportunity to supply their wants. Look at home first for the holiday gifts, for the local merchant is of the men who do much to support and improve the town in which you are most interested.

A Great Production.

Mr. Wright Lorimer's great production of The Shepherd King comes to the Garrick Theater, San Francisco, for three weeks, opening Monday night, November 29th. In New York and Boston, where it has enjoyed extensive run, it has proved a revelation, and from the first night the demand for seats was so great that many orders had to be turned away unfilled. The beauty of the play and its moral teachings have been commended by the majority of the prominent ministers of the East, while its dramatic value is a theme upon which critical reviewers have exhausted themselves. The size of the production has proved a source of amazement to not only theater goers but to managers as well. It is without doubt the greatest specteele ever presented on the American stage, being what might be termed a size larger than Ben Hur, which has heretofore enjoyed that distinction. Wright Lorimer, who is part author of the play and plays the role of David, is a sincere and skilled actor of artistic ability. He has sprung into public notice with a bound; at one leap has gone many rungs of the glittering ladder of fame. Practically unknown in the large Eastern cities a year ago, today his reputation is only less than that of the greatest American stars. The drama is given in four acts and five scenes. Act I shows the home of David, the shepherd boy, at Bethlehem; act II the camp of Saul in the vale of Elah; act III the palace of Saul at Gibbehah, and act IV the cave of the witch of Endor and the palace court adjoining. The action consumes three years. In a production of this size every essential has to be specially prepared, even down to wigs and sandals, and the piece is expected to produce a sensation in San Francisco such as no spectacle of its kind has ever produced.

The following is the well known list of characters: Bringham Royce, J. Irving White, Daniel Gilfether, Harold Lacoste, Frank Campbello, Daniel Lawlor, Walter Brown, Alex Bergstrom, Helen Singer, Fredrica Goring, Alison Skipworth, Ruth Copely and Evah Ferrier. There are over 200 people in the production.

Thauksgiving at Parochial Hall.

The Thanksgiving entertainment given in the Parochial hall Tuesday evening was a pronounced success in every way and was accounted the most enoyable event that has ever taken place in Menlo Park. Samuel M. Shortridge, the orator of the evening, sustained his wide reputation as a spell binder. Mr. Shortridge is certainly a polished orator, his diction is well nigh perfect, while his charm of delivery is graceful and his annunciation pleasing. After a few humerous sallies at the expense of the ladies Mr. Shortridge launched out into his subject and eloquently told the reasonss why we should be thankful.He pictoued to the small boy, the many things he should be thankful for and the blessings he enjoyed, that were denied persons of a generation ago. He admonished him to lead a life of sobriety and grow up to be useful in the busy affairs of the world and if he did not achieve wealth or fame he could go down into the valley of the shadow with the consolation that the world had been better for his having lived .Mr Shortridge, in beautiful figures of rhetoric enumerated the manifold reasonsd why the nation should be thankful. His speech was full of fine thought and those who heard it felt that they were better for having heard it. Mr. Shortridge was loudly applauded all through the masterful effort. The singing of Miss Grace Partee found a responsive chord and she was enchored several times. She certainly made a decided hit. James Fitzgerald's song, "My Own United States" brought down the house. The chorus sangs by the convent children were the occasion for much applause. The play entitled "A Tender Attachment" presented by Howard Crane, John B. Welsh, J. E. Fitzgerald, Leo Duff, J. Kelly, J. Doyle, J. Morey was a very amusing sketch and was well presented. Every one of the actors played their part well and could pass for professionals. At the conclusion of the performance a dance was indulged in and refreshments were served.

REPORTER MAKES AN ERROR

Examiner Correspondent Does An Injustice to Sheriff Chatham.

The Examiner in an article published on Tuesday did Sheriff Chatham a great injustice, and it seems that the article was wholly inspired for that particular purpose. The paper stated that a prisoner named Carroll had broke jail and went to SanMateo and after being away all of Saturday night returned Sunday morning to the jail without the knowledge of the jailor, Chas. Lorton. The fact of the matter is that Carroll was a trusty at the jail and some time Saturday afternoon slipped away unaware and went to San Mateo. On locking up the prisoners Saturday evening Mr. Lorton noticed the absence of the prisoner and at once went in pursuit with a possee. After scouring the county they returned and next morning the prisoner returned and has been in irons and in a dark cell ever since.

Trustys are liable to get away at times from the best regulated prisons, for a watch cannot be placed over them. Only recently in a near by county the sheriff took out a number of prisoners to w ork on the county road and when they were returned in the evening six were missing and these got away right under the nose of two deputies. The Examiner wanted to have it believed that the system at the jail it lax and that Jailor Lorton is negligent in the performance of his duties. Never in the history of the jail has there been a more careful and efficient officer than Mr. Lorton has been. The Examiner tried to make a mountain out of this little incident but failed ingloriously.

The Native Daughters are busily preparing for their bazaar, which will be held on the 11th and 12th of December. Many pleasant afternoons are spent at the homes of the members sewing for the event.

Halfmoon Bay Notes

HALF MOON BAY, November 26. A movement has been started among the citizens of Halfmoon Bay looking to the formation of a sanitary district . Editor Garwood of the Coast Side News is strongly advocating the proposition and urges that steps be taken to bring the proposition before the Board of Supervisors. It is pointed out that the town is seriously in need of a sewer system and that this in the end will prove the best means of obtaining that end.

Hope is again being revived in the hearts of the people of this section that within the near future Uncle Sam will do something towards the erection of some plan of coast defense for Halfmoon Bay. For some time the Government boat Explorer has been at work off the coast making geodetic surveys, taking soundings and noting the raise and fall of the tides, and there is an understanding that the real mission of the vessel is the securing of data with a view to the placing of fortifications.

Mrs. Frank Staley, who has taken charge of the work of building a cement sidewalk around the grounds of the Methodist Church is meeting with good success in securing the necessary funds. "We have overcome every obstacle," said Harvey. "Eighty per cent of the bondholders have already turned in their holdings and as soon as the new company is incorporated they will receive the bonds of the company in lieu of the previous issue. NO VERDICT FOUND BY CARLETON JURY

Trial of the First-Menlo Park Liquor Case Results in Disagreement.

After Six Day's Hearing Ten Citizens Fail to Reach Agreement on Extent of University Campus.

After a trial lasting six days the jury was unable to determine Tuesday whether or not A. J. Carleton was guilty of a misdemeanor for having sold liquor at Menlo Park contrary to the provisions of the state law prohibiting the sale of intoxicants within one and one-half miles of the Stanford University.

The first three days of the trial were devoted to the work of getting an impartial jury, and on Friday, after 135 citizens had been examined by the attorneys only ten jurors had been secured. It was mutually agreed by the attorneys—District Attorney Bullock and Hall C. Ross for the prosecution, and Jas. T. O'Keefe for the defense—to try the case with those ten citizens whose names are as follows: W. W. Durham, E. V. Shine, C. Cullen, John Billesback, C. Groner, F. L. Crosby, H. C. Tuchsen, John Kern, George Gilbert and J. J. Kelly.

The prosecution introduced the testimony of Professors Clark, Green, Mosher and others to show that what is considered the campus of the University extends to the San Francisquito creek. It was also shown that the number of students residing at the University was over 500. County Surveyor Newman testified to the distances between various points on the grounds and Menlo Park, showing that Menlo Park saloonmen were within the proscribed territory.

The defense introduced the evidence of a number of Palo Alto hackmen and that of E. C. Myrick of Mayfield which showed that what is called the campus is a much smaller piece of ground than was claimed by the prosecution. Mr. O'Keefe also showed by testimony that the Stanford domain just south of the creek was not exempt from taxation as was the property immediately surrounding the school buildings. It was also brought out by Mr. O'Keefe that the university corporation is engaged in the manufacture and sale of wines and brandies at the famous Vina ranch in Tehama county, maintaining one of the largest distilleries in the United States.

On Monday afternoon the jury was given an outing to Menlo Park and the University, during which they viewed the disputed territory. The arguments were heard during the afternoon and at 5 o'clock the case was submitted. After deliberating two hours it was announced that an agreement could not be reached and the jury was discharged. It stood six for conviction and four for acquittal.

It is understood that Thomas Fitzgerald will be the next one of the saloonmen to be tried.

Submitted to Appellate Court.

The suit instituted by the county recorder some months ago to compel Auditor Underhill to draw his warrant for the increased salary that was allowed by Assemblyman Holmquist's bill passed by the late Legislature has been submitted to the District Court of Appeals on briefs and a decision may be handed down in the near future. Attorney Archer Kincaid represents the plaintiffs in the suit. The amount involved is $1,600 per year. Should the recorder's office be successful in the suit the auditor and county clerk will also be entitled to extra compensation provided by the same law. The case is being watched with much interest throughout the state as at least three-fourths of the representatives of the different counties had similiar bills passed raising the salaries of their officers.

Martine Plays In Luck.

Joe Martine, the street sweeper had a close call from instant death Saturday evening while in the act of crossing the railroad at Brewster avenue near the Catholic church. Martine was coming into town from the County Road, the gates were up, showing a clear right of way and when he was almost in the center of the track the 6:42 north bound train, which was hidden from view by a string of box cars, was almost upon him. He whirled his horses around and saved himself, not an instant too soon. An investigation developed the fact that the man in charge of the gates was intoxicated and when he should have been on duty was lying asleep at his post. He was discharged the next day.

In Honor of Deceased Brother.

The following resolutions have been adoped by Redwood City Council, Fraternal Aid Association:

Whereas in the passing to his reward our esteemed Brother W. M. Barret, M. D., Redwood Council No. 557, Fraternal Aid Association has suffered a great loss and mourns the parting of the fraternal ties which bound it to him who was a most respected and beloved Charter Member and its Medical Examiner since its institution, it is most fitting that we give expression to the respect, esteem and love we had four deceased brother.

W. M. Barret, M. D., was a man who had no cold reserve, no prejudice, no distrust of his fellowman, our brother's nature was warm, earnest, charitable and sympathetic, loving his fellowman, suave and gentle, pleasant and interesting in his manner; justly popular with all in our community, with a popularity well deserved and we l earned because of his merits and manliness.

While our brother had not reached to long years yet his years were filled with worthy deeds and charitable nacts and he has left his name honored by all who knew him and loved by those who had the joy of his friendship or the expression of his charity.

W. M. Barret's memory will be cherished in our Council, in the hearts of our members and his countless friends. We mourn our loss and conscious as we are how weak must be our words in the presence of his passing we offer this humble tribute to his brotherly love, his manly traits and his sterling worth. Such men as he are additions to the world and the world is better and brighter because he lived in it.

To the bereaved widow and children we tender this expression of our regard for our departed brother and offer our tender and sincere sympathy to them in their great sorrow. May they find that consolation and peace which no word of man may bestow.

Be It Resolved, that our Charter be draped in mourning for thirty days as a token of our respect, and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this be sent to W. M. Barret s widow oand family and copies be sent to the press and to the Official Journal of the Fraternal Aid Association.

WEAK KIDNEYS MAKE WEAK BODIES.

Kidney Diseases Cause Half the Common Aches and Ills of Redwood City People.

As one weak link weakens a chain, so weak kidneys weaken the whole body and hasten the final breaking down.

Overwork, strains, colds and other causes injure the kidneys, and when their activity is lessened the whole body suffers from the excess of uric poison circulated in the blood.

Aches and pains and languor and urinary ills come, and there is an ever increasing tendency towards diabetes and fatal Bright's disease. There is no real help for the sufferer except kidney help.

Doan's Kidney Pills act directly on the kidneys and cure every kidney ill. Redwood City cures are the proof.

Fred Haussler, 101 Stambaughst., Redwood City, Cal., says: Doan's Kidney Pills are certainly worthy of the highest praise. My kidneys did not seem to act properly and the secretions were very unnatural. When Doan's Kidney Pills were brought to my attention. I procured a box at P. A Ryan's drug store. The results of their use were most satisfactory. I advise anyone suffering from kidney trouble to give Doan's Kidney Pills a trial.

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.
